

* * Friday News * *

- The IOWA tests start on Monday. These tests will last for around an hour and a half each day. I will be reading all the directions to the students as they fill in their answers. A key factor in how well they do on this test will be their ability to listen to my directions. We have talked about this already but if you could mention it at home that would help! I am confident that everyone will do well!
- We will be leading Chapel this Wednesday, March 17.
- Thursday, March 18 will be a casual dress day. It will also be casual picture day.
- In Religion we discussed the importance of service. We discussed different ways we can serve and how it brings us closer to God. In chapel on Friday we presented the different ways we can serve our community.
- In writing students have continued to work on their persuasive writing. We talked about the different ways we could use persuasive writing and wrote in two different styles: persuasive paragraphs and persuasive letters.
- This week in reading we continued our discussion on the three reasons why author's write: to entertain, to inform, and to persuade. Next week we will begin looking at the authors message when they write.
- In science we started discussing spring, butterflies and plants. We observed our plants from the beginning of the year and were excited to see that our stems are beginning to grow!!
- Our new student of the week is Rachel!

- In social studies we finished our test on landforms and will move on to our next chapters which is on needs, wants and jobs in our community.
- In math this week we started reviewing double digit addition. Next week we will move on to double digit addition with regrouping.
- Enjoy your weekend!!
